Ringing the New Year 2018 in Style

The Tinplate Company of India Limited (TCIL) ushered in the New Year 2018 on a buoyant note on January 1, 2018. Mr Tarun Daga, Managing Director, TCIL, Mr R N Murthy, Executive Director, TCIL, Mr Rakeshwar Pandey, President, GTWU, Mr B L Raina, Former MD TCIL and other senior officials of the Company and Union graced the occasion. A cake cutting ceremony was held at the Archive’s premises.

In his address to the employees, Mr Daga extended warm wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. While, Mr Murthy appreciated the achievements of TCIL in the past year. He also emphasized on continuously improving quality and safety standards. Mr Raina highlighted the challenges of future and motivated the employees to meet those with confidence.

Extending his wishes, Mr Pandey stated that the Company is intent on pursuing its vision, both in letter and spirit.
TCIL was recognised at the Business Excellence Convention 2017 held on 7th-8th December, 2017 at TAJ Vivanta, Bangalore for its significant contribution in upgrading the standard of education in community schools and village remedial centres through its social responsibility initiatives. The Award was received by Mr Tarun Daga, Managing Director and Mr Prabhat Das, Manager (CSR) from Mr S Padmanabham, Group Chief Human Resources Officer, Tata Sons Limited.

A lot of what drives and defines the Tata Group today can be traced back to the formal adoption, back in the 90s of a pan-Tata framework that aids and guides group companies in their quest for business excellence – a methodology called the Tata Business Excellence Model (TBEM). The Tata Business Excellence Convention is a forum that brings together the champions of excellence in Tata from all over the world onto one stage and recognizes the exemplary work being implemented by some, which immediately emerges as a benchmark for others to replicate.

TCIL wins accolades at 29th Annual Flower Show

Adding a colourful chapter to the Winter Festival 2017 was the 29th edition of the annual flower show cum horticulture exhibition that was held from 23rd to 26th December, 2017 at Gopal Maidan, Bistupur, Jamshedpur and themed around ‘Water Conservation’.

The four-day event, which is an initiative by the Horticulture Society of Jamshedpur in collaboration with Tata Steel and JUSCO, was inaugurated by Mr T V Narendran, CEO & MD, Tata Steel. TCIL set up a large stall at the event showcasing a wide array of exhibits comprising cut flowers, rose, fruits, vegetables, bonsai and medicinal plant, among others.

Amid the awesome riot of colourful flowers and their mild fragrance that engulfed the environment with positivity, it rained awards for TCIL - it bagged 35 prizes in different categories.
In an endeavour to create awareness on the need for safe blood donation and encourage its employees, TCIL organised a blood donation camp at Gurukul on December 27, 2017. A total of 70 units of blood were collected during the camp. The Chief Guest of the function was Dr J P Singh, Head, Security Services and Guest of Honour Mr Raja Singh, Dy President, GTWU.

Blood donation camp receives overwhelming response

In an endeavour to create awareness on the need for safe blood donation and encourage its employees, TCIL organised a blood donation camp at Gurukul on December 27, 2017. A total of 70 units of blood were collected during the camp. The Chief Guest of the function was Dr J P Singh, Head, Security Services and Guest of Honour Mr Raja Singh, Dy President, GTWU.

A warm send-off

Abhinandan Diwas was organised at the Archives on December 25, 2017 for four retiring employees. At the gathering which was attended by their fellow colleagues and senior executives, each retiring employee was facilitated and their contribution to the Company’s growth was recognized. The retiring employees comprised of Mr Nilkanth Mahato, Mr Arun Kumar Dey, Mr Kanhaiya Dubey, and Mr Tulshi Das Bose.

‘Jamshedpur Carnival’ spreads riot of colours

Team TCIL actively participated in the fourth edition of Jamshedpur Carnival. From rock music to Bhangra and from Chhau dance to garba, the people of the city got plunged into celebration. The carnival parade was headed by the legendary figure of King Momo. Momo is the titular head of a carnival parade. The myriad facets of the Latin music, the stylish guitarists, the casual drum beats and the soulful voice were added to make the attendees move their feet.

Imparting management training to employees and more

At Tata, people centricity revolves around ‘Putting employee welfare at the very heart of our growth strategy’. In keeping with this philosophy, TCIL organized the next domestic management programme for employee wives with a view to enhance their knowledge on prevailing trends in various aspects of management.

The programme held on December 22, 2017 was attended by a number of participants from various walks of life. Eminent personalities conducted sessions on diverse topics which are relevant to everyday work and living with an aim to improve the quality of life of the participants. In addition to the class-room sessions, the participants were given a visit to the plant to provide knowledge of plant operations and its complexities. This enabled them to better appreciate the challenges faced by their spouses every day which, over time could facilitate in better family bonding.

Mr Tarun Daga, MD, Mr R N Murthy, Executive Director, TCIL and Mr Rakeshwar Pandey, President, GTWU along with the retiring employees and winners of Long Service Award

‘Jamshedpur Carnival’ spreads riot of colours

Team TCIL actively participated in the fourth edition of Jamshedpur Carnival. From rock music to Bhangra and from Chhau dance to garba, the people of the city got plunged into celebration. The carnival parade was headed by the legendary figure of King Momo. Momo is the titular head of a carnival parade. The myriad facets of the Latin music, the stylish guitarists, the casual drum beats and the soulful voice were added to make the attendees move their feet.

Imparting management training to employees and more

At Tata, people centricity revolves around ‘Putting employee welfare at the very heart of our growth strategy’. In keeping with this philosophy, TCIL organized the next domestic management programme for employee wives with a view to enhance their knowledge on prevailing trends in various aspects of management.

The programme held on December 22, 2017 was attended by a number of participants from various walks of life. Eminent personalities conducted sessions on diverse topics which are relevant to everyday work and living with an aim to improve the quality of life of the participants. In addition to the class-room sessions, the participants were given a visit to the plant to provide knowledge of plant operations and its complexities. This enabled them to better appreciate the challenges faced by their spouses every day which, over time could facilitate in better family bonding.

‘Jamshedpur Carnival’ spreads riot of colours

Team TCIL actively participated in the fourth edition of Jamshedpur Carnival. From rock music to Bhangra and from Chhau dance to garba, the people of the city got plunged into celebration. The carnival parade was headed by the legendary figure of King Momo. Momo is the titular head of a carnival parade. The myriad facets of the Latin music, the stylish guitarists, the casual drum beats and the soulful voice were added to make the attendees move their feet.

Imparting management training to employees and more

At Tata, people centricity revolves around ‘Putting employee welfare at the very heart of our growth strategy’. In keeping with this philosophy, TCIL organized the next domestic management programme for employee wives with a view to enhance their knowledge on prevailing trends in various aspects of management.

The programme held on December 22, 2017 was attended by a number of participants from various walks of life. Eminent personalities conducted sessions on diverse topics which are relevant to everyday work and living with an aim to improve the quality of life of the participants. In addition to the class-room sessions, the participants were given a visit to the plant to provide knowledge of plant operations and its complexities. This enabled them to better appreciate the challenges faced by their spouses every day which, over time could facilitate in better family bonding.
Volleying into the top slot

The Tinplate Sports League Volleyball tournament was a resounding success. Held in the second week of December, 2017, this tournament was keenly contested among all the teams with the Red Rhinos emerging victorious.

Interestingly, the volleyball tournament completely altered the positioning of the teams in the points tally. Before this league, the Yellow Dragons were leading the pack with the Red Rhinos at second position - a single point separating the two. But victory in this league pushed the Red Rhinos to the top slot with the Blue Bulls at No.2 while the Yellow Dragons had to remain content at the third position.

Cricketers’ day out at Keenan Stadium

S K Nanavati Cricket Tournament 2017 was held on December 5, 2017 at Keenan Stadium organised by Sports Department, Tata Steel Limited. Tinplate won toss against ISWP and decided to field. ISWP scored 119 runs all out in 20 overs. Chasing the target, Tinplate scored 120 runs for 4 wickets in 12.5 overs.

Golden glory for Bhagwati

Bhagwati Devi, an employee of The Tinplate Company Of India Limited won first place in the 72 kg weight class, at the Subrata Classic International Powerlifting Championships 2017 held from 27th to 30th December, 2017.